

People Visiting El Paso and El Pasoans Out Of Town Visiting

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Coleman and family left Saturday evening for Comstock, Miss., where they will spend the summer. Later they will go to California to reside several years, and perhaps permanently. Miss Ruth Coleman will be the guest of her cousin, Miss Florence Lager, at Little Rock, Ark., for a short time before going to Mississippi.

Miss Lois Hummel, of Plymouth, Ind., will soon arrive in El Paso to spend the remainder of the winter as the guest of Miss Pearl Berkey. Miss Berkey will also have as her guest Miss Lute Foster, of Las Cruces, for a short visit.

Miss Emily Foster has as her guest Mrs. H. W. Galbraith, of Amarillo, Texas. Mrs. Galbraith formerly lived in El Paso, and has here many friends.

Mrs. Frank D. Wickham, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. T. H. Logan, left yesterday, accompanied by her little son, for the Philippines.

Mrs. J. H. Pitt, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry Easter for a short time, left Monday for her home in Knoxville, Tenn.

Miss Margaret Poynter, of Midway, Ky., will arrive Saturday to visit Miss Emily Foster. Miss Poynter will attend as one of the bridesmaids at the Foster-Deering wedding.

Mrs. John Sorenson is dangerously ill at her home, 504 North Stanton street.

Mrs. B. O. Sprague, of Chino, Cal., is visiting her friend, Mrs. Jasper Woodbridge, at 1492 Arizona street. Mrs. Sprague was formerly Miss Mc. Potts, of Bonham, Tex.

WEDDINGS.

George B. Monroe and Miss Helen Dees were married Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, in the Brazos. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. S. Wright, of the Trinity M. E. church, in the presence of a number of friends. Mr. Monroe is connected with the M. K. & T. railroad at Dallas. The bride is a charming young girl of this city.

Saturday afternoon, at the home of the bride, 219 West Rio Grande street, Mrs. Caroline Hitchens was united in marriage to Robert Hitchens, Rev. C. O. Beckman officiating. The wedding was a quiet affair, with only a few friends in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hitchens will reside in El Paso, at 219 West Rio Grande street.

An interesting wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at St. Clement's Episcopal church, when Miss Edna Elaine Maxey and Andrew Sidney Johnson were united in marriage. The bride was given away by her uncle, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Henry Easter.

Miss Maxey is a charming Louisville girl, who has been visiting relatives in the city during the winter. Mr. Johnson is connected with the First National bank and is one of the well known young men of the city. After a short wedding trip, the young couple will return to make their home in El Paso.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS.

Mrs. W. A. Hogarth will be the next hostess for the Shakspeare Reading club at her home, 1019 Newman street. The U. D. C. will meet Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Trinity M. E. church, Mesa avenue.

Miss Katie Stoker was tendered a delightful surprise party on Friday evening by the Phi Phi girls.

The young women were charmingly gowned in colonial style, with powdered hair and patches. Dancing was one of the pleasures of the evening, and refreshments were served. The hostesses were: Misses Laura-maud Pink, Martha Thurmond, Lucille Pierce, Mawbry Henning, Wilma Elliott. Among the guests were Misses Frances Mayfield, Margarette Rees, Violet Alken, Kate Krause, Robertson, Katie Stoker, Janet Black; Messrs. Page, Kemp, Hatten, Will Findley, Albert Townsend, Oliver Darbyshire, Arthur Schuster, Stafford Thurmond, Ross Kieffer, Herbert Hunter.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Little Jack Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Matthews, entertained friends in honor of his second birthday anniversary, yesterday, at the residence, 203 Grand View. The house was decorated in red, white and blue, with the flag used at the breakfast as a center of interest. The juvenile guests were served ices, fruits and candies, and each given a souvenir. Those present were: Helen Mangel, Louise Monk, Lella Temple, Korman Shepard, Helen Matthews, Burnice Baird, Baird, Half Langford, Walter Baird, Richard Langford, Willis Ellis, Sherod Mangel, George Howard, Paul Overman, Daniel Matthews, and Azzina, Kathleen and Sister Orndorff.

TESTIMONY IN THE DAMSITE CONTEST

Commissioners Expected to Complete Their Work in a Short Time.

The condemnation proceedings at Socorro, N. M., on the Elephant Butte dam site, will probably be finished today or tomorrow.

The local reclamation office has not heard anything definite as to the results of the investigation as yet.

The commissioners appointed and taking the testimony in the case are: C. T. Brown, Socorro, N. M.; John Magdalen, Magdalena, N. M.; Harry Kluger, Hillsborough, N. M.

BIG PREPARATION FOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON

The first luncheon at the chamber of commerce was such a success, and proved of such comfort and convenience, that the officers have prepared themselves to serve any number of the members and their friends who are cordially requested to attend.

At the Thursday luncheon the following speakers will address the members of that body:

Col. J. F. Huston, U. S. A., on "Why the Military Post at Fort Bliss Should be Enlarged."

W. J. Bule, president of Bule Printing company, on "The Advantages and Abuses of City Advertising."

Simple Remedies the Best.

Right now—when half the town has a cold and the other half is on the verge of one—we suggest two simple, efficacious remedies. White's Cold Tablets—our own preparation—ure a cold quickly and completely. White Pine and Tar—also our own preparation—is good for a cough. Remember, they're made and sold only by us.

DIES TWO WEEKS AFTER FATHER

Parent Stricken With Heart Failure Trying to Save Girl.

Roswell, N. M., Feb. 23.—Two weeks after the death of Willis Kite, of Eureka, Kans., who died from heart failure shortly after bringing his wife and daughter here, his 14-year-old daughter, Ina, May, succumbed to the white plague.

When the father died from heart failure, the remains were sent back to Eureka, while the wife and mother remained here with her daughter hoping the change of climate would prove of benefit to her health. The remains of the daughter will be taken to Eureka, accompanied by the grief-stricken mother, and will be laid to rest beside the newly made grave of the father.
